

SUMMERTIME FUN

Greetings from the Hogar Infantil La Gloria. Summer has arrived and with it time to thank God for the wonderful children we have been blessed to care for. Summer plans for the children include trips to the beach, three weeks of summer camp, pool visits and a special day at a ranch organized by a generous donor. We are truly blessed and proud of all the kids. We are currently caring for 25 children of various ages and with the end of school there will be sounds of play and laughter in the courtyards all day long.

The spring was filled with many transitions. After over eight years of service to our mission, Jesse Imbriano and Daniel Roderick have stepped down from their positions at Hogar Infantil, Inc. We are so grateful for all their remarkable achievements during their time with us. We ask that all of our friends continue to pray for them as they offer their considerable talents to the building of the Kingdom in new and creative ways.

The campus has also been alive with craftsmen this spring as improvement projects around the campus are being completed. Major work has been accomplished to replace aging gas lines, update electrical wiring and repairing roofs on the outside and ceilings on the inside. The facilities are looking great thanks to some amazing generosity. We are looking to continue improving infrastructure in other areas in the near future.

The spring also brought visits from our high school supporters. Both Villanova Prep and Saint Augustine High School sent delegations to share their talents with the children of Hogar Infantil. The children are always excited to participate in whatever the visitors have planned. Recent activities arranged by the visiting students included storytelling, art projects and an energetic Taekwondo class led by a senior from Saint Augustine. The high schools have been enthusiastic supporters through the school year as those who can't make the trip to Tijuana contribute by supporting the many fundraisers organized by student leaders. We ask for your prayers for the continued interest and creativity of these young leaders in our faith.

FAITH AND PRAYER

Faith is always an important part of the lives of the children. Each week the children visit a near by church to attend mass and whenever possible visiting priests celebrate mass in the Chapel on campus. The children are grateful that they can call the Hogar Infantil La Gloria home and pray for those less fortunate than them. Please continue to hold our children and the staff that care for them in your prayers.
